Purpose

- Knowing where you are going and where you are along the way will ensure that you arrive at your destination
- Tracking a project's progress is a lot like flying an airplane across the ocean
- The pilots constantly monitor their speed and direction
- Without tracking their speed and direction, they could end up taking their passengers to the wrong place!

Purpose

- Tracking is essential to ensure that nothing has been omitted and what is being done satisfies the project's final objectives
- Assigning responsibility to different team members clarifies and divides the work efficiently

Project Management

- A well-managed project has a better chance of meeting its goals and deadlines than a poorly organized one
- A project-management document with tasks, responsibilities, and timelines can be a helpful tool if it is used by every member of the team
